How did you hear about REEF VBC? (Please put persons name, flier, website, etc.)

Which would you rather be on, a top ranked team or a team with your friends?

What is the main thing you are looking for when picking a club?

If Reef offered Jump Training, Core Training, and Extra Lessons to its members would you be more likely to play for Reef as your top choice?

REEF VBC Waiver and Release of Liability

This form must be signed before any person can join any activities for REEF VBC as a player participant in the club's volleyball training and competition program. As a participant I acknowledge that volleyball is an extreme test of a person's physical and mental limits and carries with it the potential for serious injury and great bodily harm. Players will frequently fall, contact one another, dive for balls, jump and land on the foot or other part of a player's body, and encounter numerous other injury-causing events. I hereby assume the risks of participating in the activities associated with trying out for the REEF VBC. I hereby waive, release, and discharge from liability for any claims for damages for personal injury or death which arises out of or is related to my participation in any and all Reef Volleyball Club activities.

As the player participant signing above is under the age of 18 and I have brought the child to this volleyball activity, I as the parent/guardian of the above named child, do hereby consent to the minor's participation in this volleyball activity and consent to the terms of the above waiver.
